

-4 and 22:1-2

This story tells of a God-given dream that John had about what it would be like when God's kingdom comes on earth and everything is made new. I wonder what God's perfect world looks like. I wonder what YOUR perfect world looks like – and whether the two might be similar in any way.

This week, why not draw or make a city or a garden that you think would be like God's perfect world. You could do it in 2D or in 3D and maybe get someone to help you and talk with them about what it might look like too. What colours might you see? What would be included and what would be left out? What would the people be doing in this world?

A prayer for when you go to sleep

God, fill my dreams with hope and light
